

CTC Quarter 1 Events

Event	Notes
ANG Training at UW Milwaukee Event Reach: 13	13 WIANG members from all three bases participated besting our goal of 10 WIANG participants. The UW-Milwaukee as a designated I-Corps site/member created custom design thinking and innovation risk-management (Lean Launch) training. Program participants participated in a half-day session on December 2. The CTC will track program participants into the spring SBIR Ready program.
Quick Chat with Carl Buhler Event Reach: 12	CTC hosted Carl Buhler who has a specialty in the SBIR/STTR space and knowledge of the growing AFWERX program. Carl Buhler highlighted his background and ways companies can advance mission-driven innovation in the Air Force. Link to recording.
Innovation Funding with the Air Force Event Reach: 57	The CTC in partnership with the Veterans Chamber of Commerce and AeroX presented SBA funded opportunities to engage with the Air National Guard for innovation and national defense solutions. Link to recording.
Identifying Federal Funding Opportunities & Eligibility for SBIR Program Event Reach: 49	CTC partner, BBCetc, led a webinar focusing on eligibility for the SBIR/STTR program and how companies might fit the funding into their funding strategy. Event was attended by small business and other support organizations interested in helping their clients tap this program.
National Security Innovation Network Info Session Location: Virtual Event Reach: 13	CTC hosted the regional lead of the National Security Innovation Network (NSIN), who spoke of how students, faculty, and small businesses may participate in funding challenges. Link to recording.